Organization in Nutshell:

Ekatmik Vikas Sanstha- Integrated Development Society, a registered, non-profit, non-governmental development organization that works with rural poor, tribal, children, and farmers in Bhiwandi tahsil of Thane district.

The organization has a lion's share in generating sustainable livelihood for the farmers through developing agro forestry and horticulture in villages of the Bhiwandi and Wada tahasil of Thane and Palghar districts Maharashtra State.

The organization has planted 15000 wild and fruit saplings in the target villages of Bhiwandi tahsils and Wada tahsils of Thane and Palghar districts. Presently some of the horticulture sites are bearing the fruits. This will be an alternative source of livelihood for the agrarian community.

Mission:

To build capacities of the women, farmers & Marginalized Groups in order to promote their empowerment and self-reliance to secure long term wellbeing.

Vision:

To achieve such development that is:

Socially acceptable

Economically viable

Environmentally sound

Effective in impact, equitable Addressing the needs and rights of the:
Project Affected Communities, children, tribal women and marginalized sections etc.

Executive Summary:

The project objectives were to mobilize farmers into Jangal Sajav Groups, promote awareness regarding agroforestry and horticulture, strengthen the community-based structures and enhance the ability of members to work together. It was also envisaged by organizations to improve soil fertility and address the issues of land degradation and environment conservation. The project also aimed to enhance the capacity of the selected farming households to apply appropriate sustainable farming practices through workshops, group formation discussions, information dissemination.

The villages viz. namely Zedke, Vedhepada, Vedhegaon, Malbidi, Chane, Vishwagad, Dalondevillage, Dalondepada, Pahare, Ghotanpada, Brahmanpada , Minde, Khambla, shirla , Chikalpada, Bhogadepada, Ambode, Gondhale , Mahap, Savroli , Kelhe, etc were selected to carry out the project activities. Further, Jangal Sajav Groups of male and female farmers were formed in these villages. Jangal Sajav Groups are the community-based structures for developing the agroforestry and horticulture models in their respective villages with the support of the organization.

The project commenced in March 2014 and phased out in March 2018. However, the organization has continued this project with the support of like-minded organizations and individuals.

From 2014 to 2018, the organization has planted 15000 fruits and wild saplings. And developed vegetation cover over 128.3 acres of land in Bhiwandi tahsil of Thane district. It is a huge vegetation cover that the organization has created for conservation of the environment, prevention of land degradation, and generating sustainable livelihood for the marginalized farmers.
